presents

वार्तावेद

CHAIRMAN'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

It is a matter of great pleasure that Vivekananda School of Economics has launched the third issue of their Newsletter "Arthved". I believe the newsletter will provide an excellent platform for educated economists from the School of Economics to showcase their writing processes on current global issues like climate change and sustainability, economy, and society, and international trade and relations. We are committed to creating an environment for nurturing innovation, creativity, and excellence in our students. At VIPS, we always encourage students to seek beyond the walls of the school and actively engage in co-curricular and extracurricular activities. The newsletter also aims to give readers a bird's-eye view of the events organised "by the students, for the students" at the School of Economics. We aim to prepare the young minds to confidently and competently face the challenges of intensifying competition by imparting high quality education coupled with appropriate training and wide exposure to the state-of-art practices. Our educational programmes place a strong emphasis on the all-round personality development of our students as well as the instillation of professional ethics and human values that enable them to lead fulfilling lives. This newsletter is a reflection of the same. I wish the very best to the team and blessings for this new initiative.

Best Wishes

Dr. S C Vats

Chairman, VIPS-TC

DEAN'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

On behalf of the Vivekananda School of Economics (VSE), I take great pride in presenting the third edition of our annual newsletter -"Arthved". It is published by the Academic Society of VSE- "Arthvidya". As a responsible institution, we emphasize the overall development of the students. Hence, Arthved is a student-led initiative and has been successful in eliciting greater participation from the students of VSE, showcasing their creativity and analytical ability. The newsletter highlights various activities and events which are planned in the department to engage students in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. It will provide a forum for creative expression on topics that are interdisciplinary in nature. I would also like to highlight that the budding writers of the department have continued to express their passion and creativity through their blog: Arthvidya. This blog seeks to provide a platform for intellectual expression on contemporary issues and events happening around the world. Team Arthvidya has given careful consideration to selecting themes that would not only interest individuals who are analytically inclined but also be simple enough for everyone to understand. The objective is to educate readers about significant issues that the world is currently confronting and the economics that underlie them. You can access this blog at: <https://arthvidya.wordpress.com/blog/>. I hope you enjoy reading the articles in Arthved as much as our team enjoyed putting them together. I invite your valuable feedback, which will help us in our endeavor to never cease improving.

Best Wishes

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

We at Vivekananda School of Economics are delighted to present to you the third edition of our annual newsletter - 'Arthved', published by Academic Society- Arthvidya: VIPS Club of Economists. In our persistent efforts to garner a safe space for students to exchange nuanced ideas, we have put a great deal of thought into selecting the topics that our newsletter would touch upon. The newsletter aims to incite thought-provoking discussions among our students and thereby instill the knowledge believed required to mould them into remarkable individuals. Along with being a creative outlet for our students, the newsletter would act as a bulletin board for all the activities and events we constantly conduct to upskill our students. This is merely a humble beginning to serve our greater goal of fostering a strong sense of community amongst us. There is something magical about an engaging in-person class discussion, we intend to replicate the same beauty of exchanging complex ideas with the help of this platform. We try to quench our students' hunger for information outside of textbooks through the newsletter and try to find the answers through the columns produced by our community of aspiring authors. This initiative has been in the works for quite some time now and we are overjoyed to finally unveil and showcase the efforts of our resilient student body. We wish to embark on this journey hand in hand with our readers and experience it together as a unit. The team intends to continue evolving by taking into account your invaluable insights pertaining to our work. Hope you're here to tag along with us on this exciting ride.

Best Wishes,

Team Arthvidya

BUILDING A CAREER IN PUBLIC POLICY

by Placement & Guidance Cell

The Placement & Guidance Cell of Vivekananda School of Economics, VIPS-TC organized a session on "Building a Career in Public Policy" conducted by Mr. Sunil Mani.

Mr. Sunil Mani has worked on academic projects related to infant mortality, child health, maternal health and caste discrimination in India. His research- India Residential Energy Survey (IRES) 2020- is the largest pan-India survey on energy access and consumption patterns in Indian homes.

He initiated the session by introducing his current company, CEEW - The Council on Energy, Environment and Water- and its work in the area of public policy. It was formed to provide independent research-based insights to policymakers for building a sustainable India. He explained the meaning of "policy making" and its need. Further, he explained key actors in the public policy space (which included consultants, academic etc.) and his role as a public policy researcher at CEEW. Mr. Mani also provided insights on his research - the India Residential Energy Survey (IRES) project, sharing about the policy disclosure on future of clean energy access in India. He continued by briefing about the various aspects to be kept in mind as a public policy researcher and concluded the session by sharing the key aspects for a successful career in public policy research. The session ended with an interactive Q&A Session with active and enthusiastic participation from the students.

The drivers of sustained use of liquefied petroleum gas in India

Sunil Mani¹, Abhishek Jain², Saurabh Tripathi³ and Carlos E. Gual⁴

Nearly two per cent of Indian households now have access to liquefied petroleum gas (LPG), with 88 million awaiting it and the Petroleum Planning Board (PPB) alone 2016, 2018, having a contribution to not enough to eliminate household gas use. Building on data from our household-level survey from 2016-2018 and 2019, we assess the determinants of sustained energy transition from coal to LPG. We find that PPB households have much lower odds of using LPG as a primary fuel and the years of LPG use positively influence its sustained use, while use of access to nearby available biomass and reliance on electricity and regular income source reduce LPG use. The findings highlight the need to integrate fuel policies with rural development, to enable a complete transition towards cleaner cooking fuels.

EXPERT LECTURE SERIES: INDIA'S DIPLOMACY AND POLICY DIALOGUE IN COLLABORATION WITH NITI AAYOG

On 23rd November 2022, Arthvidya-The Academic Society of VSE organised an Expert Lecture Series, on India's Diplomacy and Policy Dialogue in collaboration with NITI Aayog. The first lecture of this Series was delivered by Ms. Aparna Sharma, Associate, Strategic Economic Dialogue in NITI Aayog (International Relations) at Auditorium, Block-B, VIPS-TC. She has been a team leader for the AYUSH Sector and has made significant policy contributions in the "Make In India" initiative.

The poster features the logos of VIPS, NITI Aayog, and Arthvidya at the top. It identifies the event as part of the Expert Lecture Series at VIVEKANANDA INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES- TC, VIVEKANANDA SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS. The specific lecture is titled 'Expert Lecture 1: India's Foreign Diplomacy during COVID-19' and is presented by APARNA SHARMA, Associate, Strategic Economic Dialogue, NITI Aayog (International Relations). The event is scheduled for 23rd November at Auditorium Block-B, starting at 10 AM. A note at the bottom indicates it is 'ONLY FOR STUDENTS OF VIPS'.

The lecturer began with a presentation that delved into various stages of the pandemic and explained how the Indian Economy was impacted and sustained through the pandemic and also became a part of the Multi-Faceted Global Partnership.

Ms. Aparna Sharma continued the presentation by describing the steps taken by the government of India in response to the pandemic. She emphasized India's Stand-out Policy Achievements, one of them, being the adoption of AYUSH, under which the Government launched a nationwide distribution campaign of AYUSH 64. She also familiarised the audience with the "Vande Bharat Mission". Other accomplishments, such as the production of vaccines and the CoWIN app were also presented in the session.

The Speaker gave an insight into India's international initiatives and cooperation by highlighting the "Vasudaiva Kutumbakam" (the World is one family) operation. She concluded the meeting by praising the extraordinary efforts made by the Government of India and NITI Aayog and the global efforts made by the other nations. She emphasized the role of students of economics in policymaking and research to shape the strategies of the government.

On 7th January 2023, The Placement & Guidance Cell of VSE, VIPS-TC conducted a seminar on "What it Takes to be Placement Ready!" by Mr. Vikesh Koul.

Mr. Vikesh Koul is a Senior Data Analyst at Booking.com, Amsterdam and has 8+ years of experience in providing Data Analytics solutions in Retail and Finance. He has a strong passion for education and has trained more than 500 employees from various firms in data analytics.

Mr. Koul discussed the importance of skill enhancement by pursuing additional courses related to research methodology, econometrics, and applied economics. He recommended a few online courses that one may enroll in to gain knowledge and lift one's career prospects. These included 'Econometrics for Economists' and 'Finance Practitioners' on Coursera. He emphasized the importance of digital data and its tremendous scope in the future. He further discussed the role of Data Analytics in helping an organization to achieve the desired results through Descriptive Analysis (What happened?) and Predictive Analysis (What will happen?). He gave his inputs on how one must pursue the "Learning Cycle" to practice and master the art of presenting data, i.e., Learn, Build, and Feedback. The workshop ended with a question-and-answer session.

SOUTH ASIAN GEOPOLITICS AND TRADE

On March 28, 2023, Arthvidya- The Academic Society of VSE, under the flagship of Vivekananda School of Economics (VIPS-TC) organized a lecture focusing on "South Asia Geopolitics and Trade" from India's economic standpoint. The lecture was held at Seminar Hall, Ground Floor, C-Block Building.

The speaker for the event was Dr. Dhrubhajyoti Bhattacharjee, a research fellow at Indian Council of World Affairs (ICWA), Ministry of External Affairs, GOI.

The discussion began by outlining the main causes of the establishment of trade agreements and an overview of international relations between the South Asian countries along with the criticality of global supply chain amid the Russian Invasion of Ukraine.

The lecture gave insights into India's initiatives towards the path of development and cooperation by highlighting the diplomatic activities that the Indian government took hold of of to maintain good relations with South Asian countries.

Dr. Dhrubhajyoti Bhattacharjee was of the view that since the future is unknown, we should maintain good relations with other countries and strengthen our ties with them. As a reaffirmation of their bilateral ties, India and Nepal inked eight agreements on issues that ranged from countering drug trafficking in the region, assistance from the Indian side in the post-earthquake reconstruction as well as enhanced cooperation in the development of infrastructure in Nepal despite Nepal's objection to India's arrogant elder brother attitude.

PROS AND CONFERENCE

BY ARTHVIDYA

Pros and Conference was a Policy-Making competition held on 5th April 2023 under Arthvidya's annual academic event- Sankaran'23. The event was divided into 2 rounds. The 1st round was conducted via Quizizz, an online quiz platform. More than 25 candidates participated in this round out of which 10 participants qualified for the next round.

The topic for the 2nd round was, "Climate Change: The Beginning of the End or a Wake-Up Call to Take Action?" Each candidate was assigned a country and was asked to deliver an introductory speech outlining their country's current position on the problem statement. The candidates were asked to introduce a sub-topic, which was then expanded on or questioned by other nations in a round-table conference setting. Subsequently, the contestants develop policies on the given topic that explained how their designated nation might approach the issue. These policies were judged by the jury. The judging panel for the event consisted of Ms. Jyotika and Ms. Khushboo Gupta.

SCAVENGER HUNT

BY ARTHVIDYA

The Scavenger Hunt, held on 5th April 2023, was one of the most anticipated events under Sankaran'23. It was a fun event that involved participants working in teams of two to find an article hidden around the campus through the given riddles. This event was divided into 2 rounds. The first round took place on 4th April, 2023 via an online platform Quizizz. The topics for the quiz were General Awareness and History & Culture of India. The top 10 teams qualified for the second ground, which took place on VIPS-TC Campus.

WINNERS

1. Aditya Dhamija & Tushar Chaudhary

2. Harshita Sharma & Kunal Lakhani

The final round was further divided into two stages. In the first stage, all 10 teams were given clues to find an object hidden by the hosts. The clues were hidden in different areas of the college premises such as the NCC Ground, Canteen Area, Flag Post arena, etc. The top 5 teams that completed the task in the quickest amount of time moved on to the last round. The procedure was repeated for the second stage as well.

On April 6, 2023, Sankaran 2023, 'Indian Premier League Auction' was organised during the annual academic fest of VSE, SANKARAN'23 in Vivekananda Hall, B-Block, VIPS-TC.

The contest was divided into two rounds. On April 4 2023, an online quiz with 30 questions about the history of Indian cricket was administered to all participants as part of the first round. The top 10 qualifying contestants moved to the second round.

WINNERS

1st: Keshav Jawa (Satyawati College, DU)

2nd: Kshitij Khatiyar (VIPS, VSE)

3rd: Yash Sharma (Maharaja Agrasen College, DU)

In this round, the contestants had to assemble an 11-player cricket team using a bidding process in which each cricketer was given a different number of points. The team which had the maximum points was declared the winner.

FACE THE RACE, ACE THE CASE BY ARTHVIDYA

Face the Race, Ace the Case was a case study Competition held under Sankaran'23 on 6th April 2023. The students were judged on the basis of relevance to the topic, clarity of thought, creativity and originality, fluency and language and quality of the content.

All teams were carefully assessed followed by a Q&A round by the judging panel. After careful thought and consideration, the winners were announced in the closing ceremony. This event provided a platform for students to enhance their critical thinking skills, refine articulation and upgrade research skills.

SOLVE ME IF YOU CAN

BY VYOM

On the 4th and 5th of April 2023, VYOM: The Cultural Society of VSE conducted the competition, Solve Me If You Can, during SANKARAN'23.

The competition was conducted in 2 rounds where participants had to investigate, decipher puzzles, and follow hints. It was entirely conducted on social media platforms where participants participated in teams of 2.

The first round was a quiz round on Movies and Sports. The top 15 entries qualified from the first round.

The second round was Social Media Treasure Hunt. Participants were given their first Instagram account username which contained their first clue. The decoded clue led the participant to the username of the second Instagram account where the participants received the second clue and so on. The first person or Duo to reach the final Instagram account of this round within the time frame was declared winners. The type of clues given were riddles, find the number, find the company from the tagline, song name, Rebus puzzle, etc.

FOOD SAFETY

On 9th June 2023, first-year students of VSE, VIPS-TC organized an event on the theme of "Food Safety". This event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of food safety and hygiene and foster a sense of responsibility among the participants.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from the first-year students of Vivekananda School of Economics, who actively engaged in various competitions and activities centered around food safety. Various competitions were conducted including: Ping Pong Chuck - Participants were challenged to identify and evaluate different health drinks, like buttermilk, presented to them. This promoted the importance of being aware of what we consume and its benefits.

Grab the Deal, Save the Meal - Students embarked on a thrilling quest to find hidden clues and save meals from the clutches of hungry monsters.

Heads Up - In this exciting game, participants had to decipher the names of food-borne diseases using only emojis and images as clues.

Jiggle the Jenga - It tested participants' knowledge about food safety practices, regulations, and potential hazards.

"3 years spent at VSE not only made me more aware about myself but hugely transformed my personality preparing me for the future. Faculties make tremendous efforts for application based learning and their continuous guidance is indispensable. Nakul Kapoor"

"My college experience has been a transformative journey of growth, exploration, and self-discovery. From the moment I stepped foot on campus, I was immersed in a vibrant community of diverse individuals, all driven by a shared pursuit of knowledge. Through rigorous coursework, engaging discussions, and collaborative projects, I received the opportunity to expand my intellectual horizons and develop critical thinking skills. Outside the classroom, I have been involved in extracurricular activities, joining various societies that aligned with my interests and passions and helped to develop leadership abilities. College is a transformative time. Embrace the opportunities and challenges it presents. Your college years will shape you in profound ways, so seize every moment and embrace growth."

ASSET BUBBLES

Asset bubbles refer to the increase or sudden rise in the value of assets, like bonds, equities, commodities, or real estate.

This rise is above their rational or fundamental level. This dramatic rise in the value or price is over a short period and is not supported by the value of the asset. The distinctive feature of asset bubbles is irrational exuberance- a phenomenon where everyone starts buying the same asset or commodity.
